New Patreon Goal: 101 Mac Tips Book

I'd like to again thank all of those that contribute to MacMost at Patreon and make the MacMost site ad-free! If you have been waiting for an opportunity to contribute, I have just added a new goal. When the goal is reached, I'm going to take my old 101 Mac Tips book, update it for High Sierra, and then release the new edition... for free! Check out the Patreon campaign and remember that $5/month contributors get to join Club MacMost, where I post extra things every week.

MacMost is an ad-free user-supported website thanks to people like you! For as little as $1/month you can help and for $5/month you can become a member of Club MacMost where I share extra posts, tips, bits of video, and commentary such as these items from this week:

Converting Currency Values in Numbers

You can use one of four functions in numbers to convert monetary values from one currency to another. You can use the price from the previous day, or a historical value. If you need to know the special currency symbol, you can look that up online. Watch Video...

Guide to Mac Screen Shots

There are six variations on how to take screen shots using the built-on macOS functionality. You can save screens. areas and windows to files or the clipboard. There is also a Grab app that comes with your Mac that allows you to capture and preview your images before saving. You can also capture timed images. Preview can also be used to capture the screen and QuickTime Player can do video captures. Watch Video...

iPhone Medical Emergency and SOS Modes

There are two emergency modes that can help you when you are in trouble. The first allows anyone to make an emergency phone call to the local authorities or to one of your emergency contacts. It also shows critical medical information that can help someone help you. Another mode can be triggered by you to call for help. Watch Video...

Start Screen Saver With a Button

Normally, the screen saver starts after a period of inactivity, or when you use a Hot Corner. But you can also create a button in the Dock to start your screen saver with a click. This can be a handy way to quickly lock your Mac too. Watch Video...

A Beginner's Guide to Mac User Accounts

New Mac users may not yet be using multiple user accounts, one for each individual using the Mac. Using accounts is a good way to keep from stepping on each other's toes when more than one person share a Mac. They are a must if you want to use iCloud or customize your Mac experience in
